BAD DAY FOR FREE TRADERS.

AN ASTOUNDING AMENDMENT FOR CANADA'S BENEFIT IN THE HOUSE.

MR. BRECKINGIDGS WEAKENS ON HIS PROPOSAL-

'TIM " TARSNEY AT BAT. WASHINGTON, June 6 .- The Taxiff debate today was very lively at times, but every effort to amend the bill in the interest of American labor and industries, was defeated. Mr. Weaver, of Iowa, ex-Greenback candidate for the Presidency and now a full-fledged Free-trade Democrat, locked horns twice with Mr. Funston, who represents a large constituency of Kansas farmers. The first ne the House was thrown into great confusion and for five minutes members on both sides exercised their lungs to the utmost cheering on their respective champions who stood on epposite sides of the centre aisle gesticulating violently and shouting defiance at each other at the top of their voices. So wild was the clamor that their tones were inaudible and they seemed to be characters in a pantomime. In the last set-to Funston managed to make himself heard when he declared:

Whenever the crops are short in Iowa, we in Kannas suffer from an invasion of cranks. Two years age the gentleman from Iowa canvassed my district and preached his free-trade theories, and every county in which he spoke

An interesting feature of the debate was the discomfiture of " Tim" Tarsney, of Michigan, who was elected to Congress because the voters were made to believe that he was a better Protectionist than Reswell G. Horr. " Tim" has been in deep trouble on account of the free lumber provisions of the bill, and he said to-day that he had labored day and night with the Democratic members of the Ways and Means to modify those provisions, but Detroit, and Mrs. S. E. Eastman, of Canandaigua, N. Y. without avail.

" Tim" explained that he wants to ruin the lumber industries in his district gradually instead of outright. He would take off one-third of the duty each year for three years, "so as to ameliorete somewhat the sufferings" of his constituents. He had said a good deal about the hiring of cheap Canadian labor under contract by the lumbermen of Michigan, when Colonel Weber, of New-York, took him to task because he did not go to the Secretary of the Treasury and invoke the law, which prohibits the introduction of such laber.

"I did that," said Weber, "and the abuse was stopped in my district. If the gentleman from Michigan would do the same thing, instead of making idle speeches here, he would do the workingmen some practical service, which he does not do

Tarsney was furious, but there was worse to come. Brewer, of Michigan, who is a coel and practised debater, rose and asked: " Are you in favor of free lumber?" The reply was a stump

"You have not answered my question. 'Yes' or 'no' will do it," persisted Brewer. Another stump speech. Again Brewer returned to the subject, and that time, after some grandiloquence, "Tim" was forced to declare that if he could not get his was a bad day for him, and some persons thought that Major Farquhar was guilty of excessive cruelty when he persuaded Timethy to answer a series of questions about the condition of labor in his district, which completely upset the claborate defence and apology which he had inflicted upon the House. MILLS AND HIS FOLLOWERS DESPERATE.

Another feature of the proceedings showed that the free-traders are rapidly becoming desperate and demoralized. Mr. Dingley offered an amendment to the proviso which retains present duties ment to the proviso which retains present duties on lumber imported from countries which impose an export duty thereon. It was in effect that present rates shall be retained on importations from countries which deny to fishing and other licensed vessels of the United States the commercial privileges to which they are entitled, and which are accorded to the vessels of such countries in United States ports. Mr. Dingley supported the amendment in a speech which was a model of tesseness and cogency. The free-trade leaders were thrown into confusion.

"Premier" Mills attempted to reply and made a noisy speech which did not meet any part of the case. Then Mr. Breekinridge, of Kentucky, came to the rescue by offering an amendment providing for the admission free of duty of all fish, fresh or salted, from countries which would accord to vessels of the United States the commercial rights to which they are entitled. In other words, Mr. Breekinridge wants to buy from Canada privileges to which even Secretary Bayard has repeatedly declared the United States to be entitled in his correspondence with the British Foreign Office. When Mr. Dingley rose to oppose this astounding proposition, he was hardly able to restrain his indignation. Il espoke ten minutes and asked for more time, but Mills and Breekinthis astounding proposition, he was hardly able to restrain his indignation. He spoke ten minutes and asked for more time, but Mills and Breckin-ridge had begun to realize their blunder, and the former said that he would not object provided the matter could be postponed until to-morrow. To this the Republicans consented, and the

To this the Republicans consented, and the committee rose to allow the intervention of other business. In the debate on the lumber items in the free list the Democrats have been over-matched at every point, except when S. S. Cox has delved into books of ancient fables or sourced into readms of poetry to exclaim "Woodman spare that American tree," etc. No time has been wasted by the Republicans, although it has been apparent thus far that the orders of the Democratic caucus are to be obeyed to the letter.

The next item in the bill is salt, which it is proposed to transfer to the free list.

proposed to transfer to the free list.

THE SENATE PASSES THE CONSULAR BILL Washington, June 6.—In the consideration of the Diplomatic and Coasular Appropriation bill in the Senate to day, an amendment fixing the salary of the Minister Resident to Paraguay and Uruguay at 87,000 was agreed to. On motion of Mr. SPOONER, the consulate at Prague (Austro-Hungary) was taken from class five (salary $2,000) and placed in class three (salary $3,000). The bill was then passed.

The conference report on the bill appropriating $150,000 for a public building at Bridgeport, Conn., was agreed to. The Senate then considered the House bill to pre vent the employment of allen labor upon public works and in the various departments of the Gevernment the question being on the amendment, by Mr. TELLER, adding a clause requiring public works to be constructed wholly of materials made and prepared with in the United States, and bids and contracts to he con fined to citizens of the United States. Mr. HAWLEY expressed the hope that the Senate was aware of the nature of the biff. He regarded it as belonging to a narrow and illiberal class of legislation. It shut out from employment all poor men who had just arrived from a foreign country and who were looking around for the chance to earn a dollar. Inasmuch as there was no quorum present, the bill was laid

On motion of Mr. CAMERON, the Senate bill in relation to cadets at the Naval Academy was passed. It provides that the number of appointments from graduates of the Naval Academy to positions in the lower grades of the line and engineer corps of the Navy and the Marine Corps shall not be less than twenty in each year-fifteen to the line, four to the engineer corps and one to the marine corps.

The remainder of the day was devoted to the pas-sage of individual pension bills on the calendar. Among them were bills increasing the pensions of the widows of Major-General Thomas Kibly Smith to $75, of Major-General Heintzelman to $100, and of Brigadisr-General Schimmelfenning to $50, and giving a pension of $90 a month to the widow of Commodore Truxton.

CLAIMS IN THE FRENCH SPOLIATION CASES. Washington, June 6 (Special).-Many New-York claimants who have French spollation cases will be interested to know that the report of Special Agent Somerville P. Tuck, which was transmitted to Congress by special message some days ago, and has just been returned from the Government Printing Office, dis closes considerable confirmatory testimony in support of their claims. The whole report makes 172 pages. The most important feature in Mr. Tuck's mission is the successful negotiations with the French Government for the loan of the orginal records, discovered by him in the Islands of Guadelonge and St. Bartholomew, West Indies. These records are bulky and apply to nearly 500 cases. They have all been placed on file with the French Legation here, and certified translated copies are at the disposal of claim-ants on the payment of the customary fees. These records will clear up many cases which were in doubt.

Seeiye, addressed the society on "The Gospel the Great Need for Social Regeneration." This was followed by a paper by Secretary Clark, on "A Crists in Home Missions," urging that at least $640,000 be raised for the coming year, an advance of $100,000 over last year. The sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Depart-

Policemen John Ryerson and Thomas Dougherty were tried in the General Sessions Court in Jersey City yesterday on indictments for assault and battery and false imprison-ment of John Boyd, clerk of the Board of Freeholders, on the night of May 16. Miss Mary Goodwin and Miss Cora Moors, of No. 106 East Eleventh-st., Now-York, were passing down Montgomery-st, on their way to the ferry, and at the corner of Green-st. were, as they alloged, accosted by two men who made insulting remarks. The young women rescuted the insult, and declared that if there was a policeman near they would have the men arrested. Mr. Boyd happened to be passing at the time and champloned the cause of the young women. He called the men loafers and said he would have them arrested if he could find a polleemen, and one of them choked Boyd, as he alleges, while the other struck him. Boyd started for the police station, saying that he would make a complaint, but the policemen arrested him. They were convicted of false imprisonment and acquitted on the

On the way down the river they received a sulute of seventeen gams fired by Troop F, Cavalry, while a brass band played "Yankee Doo and "God Save the Queen." The visitors on landing were received by Mayor Palmer, supported by a committee of the city government, a large body of citizens and the local militia. # NEW-JERSEY FARMS FLOODED WITH OIL.

Belvidere, N. J., June 6 .- There is considerable excitement in Sussex County over the bursting of the pipe-line of the Standard Union Company. The oil has spread over acres of rich farm land in Vernon township, and great damage has been done to growing The soil is saturated and repdered useless by reason of being poisoned by crude on. The lands of Hanry Sammif are completely ruled. A great quantity of the oil has flowed into the streams, and fish are dying by hundreds. The Fish Commissioners are doing all in their power to avert the disaster that threatens the fishing interests. The Neakill River bridge narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire, owing to some malicious person setting fire to the oil last night. The Standard Oil Company will be suced by the farmers for the damages sustained by the oil flood.

Comparatively few of the delegates expected were at the meeting held last night by the Central Labor Union at No. 145 East Eighth-st. The routine business was transacted and then numerous complaints were read, and it was resolved to boycott Leggett's Hotel, as the proprieters will not recognize organized labor. Complaints relative to Brom-mer's Park, the proprietor of which, it is said, has broken his agreement with the union, were laid over. The Chase Copyright bill was unanimously indersed, A large Chase Copyright bill was unanimously indorsed. Q.—Did you have any conversation about the $17,000 mortgage with Majame? A.—Yes. I inquired why she should undertake to put a mortgage on the house, because it would take precedence of my life lease. She said she thought the house was hers, and did not seem to have any idea of taking the life lease into consideration. HE STILL BELIEVES IN HER.

All Mr. Townsend's efforts in cross-examination did not weaken the damaging effect which this evidence of Mr. Marsh's was calculated to produce on the case for the defendants, and the most that he elicited from the witness was an emphatic declaration that he still continued to believed Madame Diss Debar " the greatest medium

DISGUSTED MOUNT VERNON DEMOCRATS. DEFEATED IN A SECRET SCHEME TO CONTROL THE SEWER APPROPRIATION.

The Democratic politicians and the contractors who train with them in Mount Vernon, were greatly disappointed at the village election three weeks ago, when the Republicans elected the majority of the candidates for trustees, or councilmen, of the village, making the Board seven Republicans and three Democrats. But the Democrats elected Postmaster, ex-Supervisor, exstc., David Quackenbush as president of the village, and only by seventy-two majority. They then hoped, through him, to control the appointment of the com mittees, so that the Democrats would get the chairmanships, especially of the Committees on Sewers and Finance; and this in view of the fact that there is to be spent several hundred thousands of dollars in building new sowers, which their friends, the contractors, would appreciate. The Democratic members and the contractors prepared a scheme which they expected to spring at the meeting of the Board on Tuesday night, but the Republican members heard of it in time, and decided to break up any such combination. The meeting was a lively one from the beginning, but the Republicans stood their ground in a manly and digited way. They carried a Baltimore, June 6.—The home bitsmen were unable to get a rafe hit off Porter to-day, and as the visitors played well in the field the shortest game of the season was wen epublican members.

There was a considerable amount of pent-up anger speut by the Democrats, especially when they learned spent by the Democrats, especially when they learned that the Republicans had discovered their trick and thwarted it. The committees as appointed show that no contractor, or ring of contractors, will control the treasury of Mount Vernon this year; and whether President Quackenbush will consult with his friends and resign, as he threatened to do, remains to be seen.

A MEMORIAL WINDOW TO PRESIDENT ARTHUR. A large memerial window to President Arthur has seen completed by the Tiffany Glass Company, and will be placed at once in Trinity Church, Lenox, Mass. The design is of the Byzantine order, and is both beautiful and artistic in effect and detail. In the centre there is a golden cross surrounded by grapevipes bearing fruit, with four white doves perched on its branches. The background is of deep blue, gradually growing lighter toward the top. In the arch at the op is the seven-branched candle-stick, with "Alpha" and "Omega" on either side. At the base there is a panel of Titian red, surrounded by dark amber jewels, upon which is inscribed the following: "In loving memory of Chester Alan Adhur, twenty-first President of the United States. Born October 5, 1830; died November 18, 1886. And finally, after this life to attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, amen." The window measures nine feet high, by nve wide, and contains several thousand pieces of glass, which are wrought together in such a manner as to produce the effect desired without paint-

WAS IT GENUINE HYDROPHOBIA!

Samuel C. Smith, age sixty-two, an ex-policeman died at his home, No. 145 Monticello-ave., Jersey City, Thursday, and it is said by Dr. Lampson, one of the attending physicians, that his death resulted from hydrophobia. Smith was bitten about three weeks ago by a pet Spitz dog which had been in the family for nearly three years. Mrs. Smith said yesterday : "Two weeks ago Friday my husband complained of a choking sensation in the throat and a difficulty in breathing. The next day he complained of great thirst, but manifested a decided repugnance to water when it was offered to him. We sent for Dr. Opdyke and he thought that my husband had some nervous trouble or lung affection. On Sunday we called Dr Lampson and he administered morphine. band grew werse on Monday and we called in Dr. Pyle. He gradually failed and died Thursday. The doctors believed he had hydrophobia. He occasionally frothed at the mouth, but did not seem to suffer much. We poisoned the dog last night."

IMPROVEMENTS AT LAKE GEORGE.

Bolton, Lake George, June 6,-Plans were submitted last year for the construction of a new boulevard along the west shore of Lako George, for the benefit of summer visitors in this vicinity, and otherwise improving the neighborhood. They have already been partially put into operation, and the erection of a large casino adjoining the Mohican House, last winter, is one of the first things accomplished. Assemblyman John C. Adams, of Newburg, is one of the prime movers in the scheme, as he always spends his summers at Lake George.

KNOCKED DOWN FOR HIS GALLANTRY.

Michael Lally, the Equor dealer at No. 272 Monroe t., who was acrested for breaking the skull of Michael Walsh, a tinsmith, on Tuesday, was held in the Essex Market Police Court resterday to await the result of Walsh's injuries. Lally said that Walsh became too attentive to Mrs. Laify during her husband's temporary absence. She colled for help and Lally rushed in and beat Walsh over the head with a club for his offensive gallantry.

A WIFE SUED FOR LIBEL.

HER CHARGES AGAINST A YOUNG WOMAN. THE " CRUTCH FOR HUMANITY" STIRRED UP BY

MISS TERRY'S SUIT AGAINST MRS. PERINE. Many long-haired men and wild-eyed women were present in the Supreme Court before Justice Lawrence and a jury yesterday to listen to the testimeny in a case of interest to spiritualists. They were for the most part members of the Metropolitan Church The suit is for libel, based upon letters written by Well! well! George Francis!" exclaimed Mr. Mrs. Mary Ann Perine, in which Miss Minnie Torry "Yes, the at Summit, N. J., on the hill in the midst of a grove he and his wife have been in the habit of spending their summers, living in this city in the winter.

They took boarders at "the Home" in the summer and among them for soveral seasons were Miss Terry and her father. George D. Carroll, of the firm of The most important testimony Mr. Marsh gave Dempsey & Carroll, testified that he was introduced was in regard to the transfer of No. 166 Madison- to Miss Terry and her father in 1885 by Dr. and Mrs. Perine, who said they were saitable persons to be admitted to membership in the church of which he was president. They joined it. Letters containing the alleged libels were identified by the witness and to the first summer you spent at the Mountain House. You were a sufficient witness of the power which Mr. Terry and his daughter held over my husband, for you as well as others often taunted me with the question, " Did I loan my husband out?" Well, that season closed, and a few days before she left to go South she got angry at me and said, "I do love the Doctor, and I hate you."

She further writes that she prayed to the spirits for relief, and that her husband finally told her he had done wrong and would do so no more. In another letter to Mr. Carroll she reiterated her state-ments against Miss Terry, declaring that she and her father were unit to be members of the Metropolitan Church for Humasity. Cross-examined, Mr. Carroll said the church was incorporated to hold services "for the sake of humanity." In this church the paster was called the Speaker."

Q.-Is it a spiritualistic society? A.-If you will tell me what 'a spiritualist' means I will tell you. There seems to be a great deal of variance as to what it is. It is intended to be a spiritualistic church. It is believed that "the speaker" speaks by inspiration the same as in Biblical times.

Mr. Carroll defined spiritualism as follows: "Spirtualism and spiritism are two different things. Spiritualism is a purity of heart-doing unto others as you would have them do to you-while spiritism means, having found that there is no eternal damnation, having found that there is no eternal damnation, taking the chances and doing as you please here. The spirit out of the body is no different from the spirit in the body." When the plaintiff rested, Miss Terry had not been called. A motion to dismiss the complaint on the ground that the latters were privileged communications was denied.

For the defence, Julia A. Powers, Maria L. Kentish, Adelaide M. Turnbuil and the defendant testified that Miss Terry was at "the Home" against the wishes of Mrs. Perine: that she followed Mr. Perine about, declared that she was in love with him, sat upon his lap, threw her arms about him, kissed him, and was in the habit of sitting in a hammack with him and strolling in the weods alone with him, and was frequently in his room with him.

The case will go on to-day.

ALICE WOODHALL'S PROPERTY. EFFORTS TO GET IT AWAY FROM THE SCOTLAND

YARD DETECTIVE. In the proceeding to obtain possession of the property of Alice Woodhall which is now in the possession of Inspector John Tunbridge, of Scotland Yard, by whom she was brought to this country under an extradition order to be tried on an indictment for forgery, George B. Newell, representing the estate of John Gill, appeared again before Justice O'Gorman in the Superior Court, Special Term, yesterday. United States Marshal McMahon testified that when Miss Woodhall was delivered into his custody by Tunbridge no property was turned over with her. The extradition laws did not authorize him to receive such property except for the purpose of placing it in the hands of the District-Attorney as evidence in the case.

He made no claim to the property. The court might order that the property be turned over to him, if it were regarded as connected with the crime of forgery with which she was charged. The proceeding was adjourned until to-day. The counsel representing the estate of Mr. Gill propose to move for the appoint-ment of a receiver of the property.

The examining place for heal competitors was at the bookstore at No. 9 Murray-at. No randidates presented themselves there for examination. JUDGE COWINGS ADVICE TO AN EX-CONVICE. Thomas Jones, ago eighteen, who has been in prison several times under various names, was tried yesterday before Judge Cowing on a charge of rob-bery in the first degree as a second offence. William Bracken, who acknowledged that he committed the robbery, testified that Jones was innocent. The jury acquitted Jones, and Judge Cowing said: "I wonder that young men who have been once convicted of crime and are known to the detectives here will remain in the city. If, as you say, you wish to lead an honest life, let your beard grow, go out West, and make an honest living where you are unkn wa to the detectives."

TO KEEP THE PAIR OPEN A LITTLE LONGED Mrs. Cleveland did not visit the Grant Monumen Fair yesterday, but enough people did to rejoice the hearts of the managers. It is now hoped that she may be present on one of the last days of the fair. New articles are continually being added. The incubator, at which by an ingenious arrangement one can see the entire development of a chicken from the first germ to the full fledged chick, attracks much attention. It was at first intended to close the fair last night, but it has been decided to continue it until Saturday night.

NOT DISPOSED TO ACCEPT THE BLAME.

The Brush Electric Illuminating Company, which the Coroner's jury holds responsible for the death of Lineman Thomas Murray, is disposed, like Bror Fox, to "lis low an' keep on sayin' nufflu." A reporter found Mr. Russell, second vice president of the company, reluctant to discuss the verdict. "I don't know that the company will do not be a few or there is the matter," he said, "but of course, we don't anything in the matter," he said, " but of course, we don't concede that the company is responsible for Murray's death, and I presume we shall take that position, if any action is brought against us." As soon as Coroner Levy has prepared a copy of the testimony before the Coronera jury, it will be sent to the District-Attorney's office and then before the Grand Jury, if it appears that any orims has been committed.

Chicage, June 6 (Special).—It turned out to be a good day for the buils in the wheat pit. It was not a session of violent fluctuations, nor of great trades, but the prices of violent suctuations, nor of great traces, although not ex-citing, was of the sort to make holders comfortable. One of the carliest and one of the most potent influences on the floor, was the report that the Missouri State Agricultural report reduced its wheat average from 77 last month to 64.
